Dear Miss Parlow:

I herewith beg to send you this letter.
You will be surprised, I think, to receive a letter from an unknown Dutch Indian boy. My name is Johnny Janssen and I am 18 years of age. I am a passionate lover of fine classical violin-playing. I heard your violin-playing (Beethoven's Menuett in E flat major) a long time ago in the "Edison." It was very fine!

I have many classical pieces of Beethoven, Mozart, Schubert, Brilla, Moskowski, etc.

I should be very glad if you would be so kind as to send me a photo of yourself with your fine violin. Some days ago I received a large photograph of Mr. Albert Spalding. I am very proud of it.

Please, excuse me if there are many mistakes in this letter. I am not very perfect in English. Hoping to hear from you soon.

I have the honour to be,

Yours truly,

 J. Janssen
